On this date I was assigned to the East Precinct mobile field force assisting protest operations at the East Precinct area. The sound truck in the immediate area gave multiple clear lawful orders for all demonstrators to walk northbound towards SE Washington. All personnel were given the opportunity to obey these lawful orders. These lawful orders were given from a safe distance and position as we were not right next to the protesters.

DESCRIBE THIS USE OF FORCE:

After several force warnings and lawful orders were issued to Jane Doe via the clearly audible sound truck and officers' verbal commands to walk Northbound or she would be subject to force and arrest. Jane Doe ignored all the warnings given and continued to make attempts to walk southbound towards the precinct. Without warning Jane Doe attempted to run passed me and reached for Officer Wyatt's PR4. I pushed Jane Doe with my left hand and she fell towards the hedges near the sidewalk . I assisted Jane Doe to her feet told her to move northbound. Jane Doe was not arrested because my attention was quickly diverted to another disturbance which required me to help another officer. No other force was used.

YES — WHEN THE RESISTANCE DECREASED, I REDUCED MY AMOUNT OF FORCE TO A LEVEL REASONABLY CALCULATED TO MAINTAIN CONTROL.
