Dear Jonas, Jared, Dennis and Tom,

Mary Claire now has the flash drive from Records with the FDCRs and attendant GOs (police reports) that you requested, and has provided or will be providing that to you.

I wanted to write pursuant to our numerous conversations about our concerns in sharing the data in this form at this stage, because it has not been through our internal review process and accordingly is not ready to be evaluated for substantive quality or compliance. This delay is due to the extreme circumstances we have faced and continue to face. Nonetheless, police/force reports are being completed on a timely basis, and at your request and to ensure your full access to records we are providing these records so you can evaluate whether they are being completed by officers on a timely basis (which they are). These records should not be used at this time to judge the content of the FDCRs nor the constitutionality of the use of force referenced nor the performance of our accountability system in regard to this extended series of ongoing protest events because these reports are still in process, going up the chain of Command and to the Inspector. These records also would not yet reflect referral to IA, if appropriate. Our provision of these records "mid-stream" so to speak is intended to satisfy COCL's and DOJ's very legitimate inquiry as to whether FDCRs are, in fact, being written in close proximity in time to the use of force.

Thank you.

Tracy
